Your Credit History

A credit bureau inquiry will be completed in order to allow us to provide the best financial advice possible to you and provide you with maximum daily access limits and credit facilities. Do you consent to the above credit bureau inquiry?

Yes, I agree to a credit bureau inquiry in order to provide me with the most flexible service options.

No, I do not agree to a credit bureau inquiry.

I understand that by selecting no, while RBC can accommodate my choice not to have my credit information accessed in order to open an account, RBC will still be confirming and verifying my identity. This verification inquiry is different from a Credit Bureau inquiry; however, it will still show on the Credit Bureau that an inquiry was taken.

By selecting "Continue", I agree to the selections made above and the other terms of this application and wish to continue with this application.
